

Environmental Examination Report

(1) Project Name

Shipbuilding yard Expansion Project

(2) Project Site

Liaoning, People's Republic of China

(3) Project Outline

The expansion of the shipbuilding yard

(4) Category Classification

Category B

(5) Reason for Classification

Though the project has sensitive characteristics and is located in or around sensitive areas under the Guideline, it is likely to have no significant adverse impact on the environment.

(6) Environmental Permits and Approvals

The Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) report for the project was approved by and environmental permits were obtained from Ministry of Environmental Protection of the People's Republic of China on June 2013.

(7) Pollution Mitigation Measures

The planned value for air quality, water quality and noise basically complies with local standards and World Bank standards. It was confirmed that appropriate measures are taken for planned waste.

(8) Natural Environment

The project site is not located within the protected area. Though there is the protected area around the project site, the protected area is not important.

There are no nature reserves in vicinity of the project site.

(9) Social Environment

Appropriate measures for land acquisition have been taken and appropriate resettlement will be taken.

(10) International Standard

World Bank-Safe Guard Policy

(11) Others, Monitoring

Taking the above environmental review into consideration, JBIC will monitor compliance status with acquisition of sedimental disposal permit.