

Environmental Examination Report

(1) Project Name

Acquisition of an ownership interest in copper mine

(2) Project Site

Republic of Peru, Moquegua

(3) Project Outline

Acquisition of an ownership interest in copper mine

(4) Category Classification

A

(5) Reason for Classification

The project falls into Mining and Dam sector under the Environmental Guidelines. This project also has sensitive characteristics, and the project site is located in or around a sensitive area.

(6) Environmental Permits and Approvals

EIA reports for the project were approved by Ministry of Energy and Mines. The project company will take appropriate measures to satisfy the conditions attached in the EIAs and obtain other project related permits.

(7) Pollution Mitigation Measures

Planned values of air quality, water quality, waste, noise and vibration are properly managed in accordance with local standards.

(8) Natural Environment

Appropriate measures are taken to avoid ecological impacts.

(9) Social Environment

The Project does not involve resettlement.

(1 0) International Standard

World Bank – Safe Guard Policy

(1 1) Others, Monitoring

In the project, monitoring will be conducted for the conditioned attached in the EIAs, other project related permits and noise etc. by the project company.