Notes to Financial Statements

1. Basis of presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared from the accounting records maintained by Japan Bank for International Cooperation ("JBIC") in accordance with the accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain aspects from the application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards.

Consolidated financial statements are not prepared since JBIC has no subsidiaries.

The amounts indicated in millions of yen are rounded down by omitting figures less than one million. Totals may therefore not add up exactly because of this rounding.

Amounts in U.S. dollars are presented solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan. The rate of ¥102.92=$1.00, the foreign exchange rate on March 31, 2014, has been used in translations. The presentation of such amounts is not intended to imply that Japanese yen have been or could be readily converted, realized, or settled in U.S. dollars at the aforementioned rates or any other rate.

2. Significant accounting policies

(a) Securities

Held-to-maturity securities are carried at amortized cost based on the moving average method. Investments in affiliates are carried at cost based on the moving average method. Available-for-sale securities are in principle stated at fair value with changes in net unrealized gains or losses included directly in Net assets. However, available-for-sale securities whose fair value cannot be readily determined are carried at cost based on the moving average method.

Investments in partnerships for investment, which are regarded as securities under Article 2, Clause 2 of the Japanese Financial Instruments and Exchange Law, are recognized at an amount equivalent to JBIC's percentage share of the net assets of such partnerships, based upon the most recent financial statements available depending on the report date stipulated in the partnership agreement.

(b) Valuation method for derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are carried at fair value.

(c) Depreciation basis for fixed assets

(i) Property, plant and equipment (except for lease assets)

JBIC's tangible fixed assets are depreciated by the declining balance method over their useful economic lives except for buildings (excluding installed facilities) which are depreciated by the straight-line method.

Depreciation is based on the following range of estimated useful lives:

Buildings: 3 years to 50 years

Other: 2 years to 35 years

(ii) Intangible assets (except for lease assets)

Depreciation of intangible fixed assets is computed by the straight-line method. Software used by JBIC is depreciated over its useful life (5 years or less), which has been determined by JBIC.

(iii) Lease assets

Lease assets in "property, plant and equipment" or "intangible assets," under finance leases that do not involve transfer of ownership to the lessee are depreciated by the straight-line method over the lease term. Depreciation for lease assets is calculated with zero residual value being assigned to the asset.

(d) Method of amortization for deferred charges

Organization expenses and bond issuance cost are expensed as incurred.

(e) Foreign currency translation and revaluation method

JBIC maintains its accounting records in Japanese yen. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are mostly translated into Japanese yen at the market exchange rate prevailing at the fiscal year end.

(f) Allowance for loan losses

JBIC's allowance for loan losses is maintained in accordance with internally established standards.

The allowance for claims on debtors who are legally bankrupt ("Bankrupt borrowers") or substantially bankrupt ("Substantially bankrupt borrowers") is provided based on the outstanding balance after the write-offs described as below and the deductions of the amount expected to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees. The allowance for claims on debtors who are not legally bankrupt but are likely to become bankrupt (“Potentially bankrupt borrowers”) is provided based on an assessment of the overall solvency of the debtors after deducting the amount expected to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees.

The allowance for claims on debtors other than Bankrupt borrowers, Substantially bankrupt borrowers and Potentially bankrupt borrowers is provided primarily based on the default rate, which is calculated based on the actual defaults during a certain period in the past. The allowance for possible losses on specific overseas loans is provided based on the expected loss amount taking into consideration the political and economic situations of these countries.

All claims are assessed initially by the operational departments and subsequently by risk evaluation departments based on internal rules for self-assessment of asset quality. The risk evaluation departments, which is independent from the operational departments, review these self-assessments, and the allowance is provided based on the results of the assessments.

With respect to claims with collateral or guarantees on debtors who are legally or substantially bankrupt (“Bankrupt borrowers and substantially bankrupt borrowers”), the residual booked amount of the claims after deduction of the amount which is deemed collectable through the disposal of collateral or the execution of guarantees is written off. There are no accumulated write-offs as of March 31, 2014 (the amount as of March 31, 2013 was ¥8,232 million ($80 million)).

(g) Provision for bonuses

The “provision for bonuses” is calculated and provided for based on the estimated amounts of future payments attributable to the services that have been rendered by employees to the date of the balance sheets.

(h) Provision for directors' bonuses

The “provision for directors' bonuses” is calculated and provided for based on the estimated amounts of future payments attributable to the services that have been rendered by directors to the date of the balance sheets.

(i) Provision for retirement benefits

The “provision for retirement benefits” represents the future payment for pension and retirement benefits to employees, and is accrued based on the projected benefit obligations and the estimated pension plan assets at the fiscal year end.

① Method of attributing the projected benefits to periods of services

In calculating the projected benefit obligation, the estimated amount of retirement benefit payments are attributed to the period up to the end of the fiscal year by straight line basis.

② Accounting for actuarial gains or losses and prior service costs

Actuarial gains or losses and prior service costs are expensed as they are incurred.

(Additional Information)

On April 1, 2013, JBIC obtained an approval from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare for an exemption from the obligation to pay benefits for future employee services related to the substitutional portion of the Japan Finance Corporation Employee's pension fund which resulted in the transfer of the obligations and related assets to the government. The estimated plan assets to be returned to the government, as of March 31, 2014 amounted to: ¥2,868 million ($28 million). If the estimated plan assets had been returned to the government on March 31, 2014, the effect on extraordinary income arising from the application of Paragraph 46 of “Guidance on the Accounting Standard for Retirement Benefits” (ASBJ Guidance No. 25) is ¥6,054 million ($59 million).

(j) Provision for directors' retirement benefits

The “provision for directors' retirement benefits,” which provides for future retirement pension payment to directors, corporate auditors and executive officers, is recognized at the amount accrued at the end of the respective fiscal year.

(k) Accounting for hedges of interest rate risk

(i) Hedge accounting

JBIC applies the deferral method to derivatives used for interest risk hedging purposes

(ii) Hedging instruments and hedged items

Hedging instruments: interest rate swaps

Hedged items: loans, borrowings, bonds and notes

(iii) Hedging policy

JBIC enters into hedging transactions up to the amount of the underlying hedged assets and liabilities

(iv) Assessment of hedge effectiveness

JBIC assesses the effectiveness of designated hedges by measuring and comparing the change of fair value or cumulative change of cash flows of both hedging instruments and corresponding hedged items from the date of inception of the hedges to the assessment date.

(l) Accounting for hedges of foreign exchange risks

Hedging instruments used to hedge foreign exchange risks associated with JBIC's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are accounted for using the deferral method, in accordance with the standard treatment of The Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants (JICPA) Industry Audit Committee Report No. 25.

The effectiveness of the hedges described above is assessed by comparing the foreign currency position of the hedged loans and bills discounted, borrowings, and bonds payable denominated in foreign currencies with that of the hedging instruments, such as currency swaps and forward foreign exchange contracts which are used for hedging the foreign exchange risks of loans and bills discounted, borrowings, and bonds payable denominated in foreign currencies.

(m) Consumption and other taxes

Consumption taxes and local consumption taxes ("consumption taxes") are excluded from transaction amounts. Non-deductible consumption taxes related to property, plant and equipment are expensed as incurred.

(n) Scope of cash and cash equivalents in the statements of cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents as stated in the Statement of Cash Flow consists of cash on hand and Deposit with the Bank of Japan in "Cash and due from banks" in the balance sheets.

(c) Effect of the application of the Accounting Standard

As a result of the application of an Accounting Standards, retained earnings as of April 1, 2014 will increase by ¥1,182 million ($11 million).

4. Changes in methods of presentation

The balance of "Cash collateral paid for financial instruments" included in "Other" under "Other assets" and that of "Cash collateral received for financial instruments" included in "Other" under "Other liabilities" in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 are separately presented as of the fiscal year ended 2013 based on the application of attachment forms provided in "Ordinance Concerning the Accounting of Japan Bank for International Cooperation" (Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 15 of 2012), which was amended in accordance with the Ordinance to Amend the Ordinance Concerning the Accounting of Japan Bank of International Cooperation (Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 57 of 2013). In order to reflect this change in the method of presentation, reclassifications have been made to the financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013.

16. Financial instruments and related disclosure

(a) Status of financial instruments

(i) Initiatives for financial instruments

Based on the JBIC Act, JBIC is a policy-based financial institution wholly owned by the Japanese government, which has the purpose of contributing to the sound development of Japan and the international economy and society, by performing the financial function to promote the overseas development and securement of resources which are important for Japan; maintaining and improving the international competitiveness of Japanese industries; promoting the overseas business having the purpose of preserving the global environment, such as preventing global warming, as well as preventing disruptions to international financial order or taking appropriate measures with respect to damages caused by such disruption.

JBIC's principal operations consist of providing export loans, import loans, investment financing, financing for business development (including guarantees) and capital investment. To conduct these operations, funds are raised through borrowing from the fiscal investment and loans and the foreign exchange fund special account, and the issuing of bonds. An ALM (asset and liability management) function has been established in respect of our financial assets and liabilities that are subject to interest rate and currency fluctuations to assist in ensuring that such fluctuations do not have an adverse effect on our operations. In addition, derivative transactions are entered into for the purpose of mitigating risk inherent in foreign currency denominated transactions. Financial instruments that can be used for the management of surplus funds are limited to safe instruments such as Japanese government bonds, etc., as stipulated in the JBIC Act.

The budget required for governmental financial operations is decided upon by the Diet of Japan, and business plans and financial plans (borrowing from fiscal investment and loans, bonds, general accounting investment, and loans, etc.) are appended to the budget and submitted to the Diet of Japan.

(ii) Types of financial instruments and risks

The assets that JBIC holds mainly include loans to borrowers in Japan and overseas, and securities and liabilities mainly include borrowings and bonds. The associated risks are described below.

① Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that JBIC will suffer losses if the financial condition of the borrower deteriorates and the value of assets (including off-balance sheet assets) decrease or disappear.

The credit risks associated with JBIC include sovereign risk, country risk, corporate risk, and project risk. Because of the characteristic of supports for overseas economic transactions conducted by JBIC, much financing is provided to overseas governments, governmental institutions, and overseas corporations; the credit risk associated with the credit provided typically consists of sovereign or country risk.

As a result, if the financial condition of the individual borrower significantly deteriorates due to political and economic trends in the borrower's country or region, JBIC's performance and financial condition can be adversely affected.

(Note) Sovereign risk refers to risk associated with credit supplied to foreign governments, country risk refers to risk associated with the country in which the corporation or project is located (risk, in addition to corporate risk or project risk, associated with the country in which the corporation or the project is located) and corporate risk refers to the risk associated with credit to corporations and project risk refers to the risk that the cash flow of an underlying project will not perform as planned, in the case of project finance, where the repayment of the borrowing is primarily secured by the cash flow of the project to which credit is supplied.

② Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the value of assets and liabilities (including off-balance sheet assets) will fluctuate and losses will be incurred, or profits derived from assets and liabilities (including off-balance sheet assets) will fluctuate and losses will be incurred due to the fluctuation of various market risk factors such as interest rates, exchange rates, etc.

The market risk associated with JBIC mainly consists of foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk, and losses could be suffered from these risks from market fluctuations. However, in principle, these risks are hedged through interest rate swaps, currency swaps, and forward foreign exchange contracts.

JBIC uses hedge accounting for interest rate hedges, where the hedging instrument is interest rate swaps to hedge the market fluctuation risk associated with loans, borrowed money and bonds. The effectiveness of the hedges is assessed by measuring and comparing the change in fair value or cumulative change in cash flows of both hedging instruments and corresponding hedged items from the date of inception of the hedges to the assessment date.

JBIC uses hedge accounting for foreign exchange hedges, where currency swaps and forward foreign exchange contracts are used to hedge items such as loans, borrowings, and bonds for foreign exchange risk. The effectiveness of the hedging currency-swaps and forward foreign exchange contracts, hedging the foreign exchange risks of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, is assessed by comparing the foreign currency position of the hedged monetary assets and liabilities with that of the hedging instruments.

③ Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that losses will be incurred as a result of funding challenges due to a maturity mismatch between financing and funding or unexpected outflow of funds, or being forced to fund at an interest rate significantly higher than in normal circumstances (funding risk), as well as the risk that losses will be incurred from a failure to ingenerate transactions in the market due to market disruption or from being forced to make transactions at a significantly disadvantageous price than in normal circumstances (market liquidity risk).

Long-term and stable funds, such as fiscal loan funds, government-guaranteed bonds, and FILP agency bonds, are secured to finance JBIC and deposits are not accepted, with the result that it considers liquidity risk to be limited. However, financing costs could increase due to market disruption and unexpected events.

(iii) Risk management structure for financial instruments

The risk management structure of JBIC is described below.

① Credit risk management

The basis of credit risk management is centered on individual credit management based on the creditworthiness of the borrower during the credit approval process.

When a new credit application is processed, the relevant finance departments (sales promotion department) and credit departments collect and analyze information on the borrower. The overseas representative offices also play a part in collecting information on foreign governments and corporations. Credit appraisal takes place based on the information that has been gathered and analyzed, with the different departments ensuring appropriate checks throughout the process, leading to the final decision by the management.

For lending to foreign governments and corporations, JBIC makes most use of its position as a public institution and exchanges views and information with governments and other authorities in recipient countries, international institutions such as the IMF and the World Bank, other regional development banks and official export credit agencies as well as private financial institutions in the industrial countries. Using all these channels, JBIC evaluates sovereign or country risk (risk in addition to corporate risk associated with the country in which the corporation is located) based on a broad range of information on government and government agency borrowers as well as political and economic conditions in their countries.

The relevant finance departments and credit departments conduct proper credit risk management based on the credit risk rating system for segmented risk categories and the asset self assessment system based on the Financial Inspection Manual of the Japanese Financial Services Agency. In addition, an Integrated Risk Management Committee is held regularly to report the status of credit management to the management. In addition, an Integrated Risk Management Committee is held regularly to report the status of credit management to the management. The credit management situation is also checked by an independent auditing department.

In addition, a claims protection mechanism exists based on an international framework unique to official creditors, that is not contained in private sector financial institutions, for official claims on foreign governments. This mechanism consists of international financial assistance upon international approval by the Paris Club, an international group focusing on debt, to allow the debtor country to continue debt repayment when the debtor country becomes temporarily unable to service its debt due to economic conditions. As part of this international financial assistance, the debtor country conducts an economic reform program upon agreement with the IMF in order to secure the ability to sustainably service its debt. In view of JBIC's position as a public financial institution, it will use the framework of the Paris Club to preserve its official claims on foreign governments.

Besides the individual credit management outlined above, JBIC quantifies credit risks to assess the overall risk of the portfolio in these operations. To quantify credit risks, it is important to take into account the characteristic of the loan portfolio, namely, that there are a significant proportion of long-term loans and loans involving sovereign risk or country risk. Also to be taken into account is the mechanism of securing assets, such as the framework of international financial assistance to debtor countries through the Paris Club, which is unique to official creditors. JBIC uses a unique model to quantify the credit risk taking account of the above explained elements and measures amount of credit risk, which are utilized for credit risk management.

② Market risk management

ALM is used to manage foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk for these operations. Market risk management protocols contain detailed stipulations of risk management methods and procedures, which are used by the ALM Committee to assess and confirm the execution of ALM, and for discussions concerning future responses. In addition, monitoring is conducted through gap analysis and interest rate sensitivity analysis as well as Value at Risk ("VaR") to comprehensively assess the interest and terms of financial assets and liabilities. The results are regularly reported to the ALM Committee.

The basic policy for managing foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk at JBIC is described below.

1) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign currency-denominated loans conducted in JBIC involve risks related to exchange rate fluctuations. We have a consistent policy of managing this risk by fully hedging this risk exposure through the use of currency swaps and forward foreign exchange contracts.

2) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises from exposure to market interest rate fluctuations for yen-denominated loan and foreign currency-denominated loan operations and the policy for managing interest rate risk is described below.

a. Yen-denominated loan operations

Funding for yen-denominated loans is mainly managed at fixed-rate interest. However, swaps are used to hedge interest rate risk for portions of loans that are thought to have high exposures to interest rate fluctuation. Interest rate risk for denominated loans is limited.

b. Foreign currency-denominated loan operations

For foreign currency-denominated loan operations, interest rate risk is hedged through the application of a consistent policy of using interest rate swaps and managing the funds with floating interest rates for both loans and related funding arrangements.

3) Status of market risk

JBIC only maintains a banking account and does not have financial instruments in a trading account. While JBIC is managed by hedging operation in principle, as already stated previously, market risk is measured in order to assess fair value and potential risks. The following represents an overview of VaR in the current fiscal year.

a. VaR (end of this fiscal year)

	March 31, 2014
	(In billions of yen)	(In billions of U.S. dollars)
1) Interest rate VaR	¥ 63.6	$ 0.6
2) Exchange rate VaR	56.0	0.5

b. VaR measurement model

1) Interest rate VaR: Historical model

2) Exchange rate VaR: Variance-covariance model

Quantitative standards:

1) Confidence Interval: 99%

2) Holding period: 1 year

3) Observation period: 5 years

c. Risk management using VaR

VaR is a market risk measure that assesses the maximum possible profits or losses that could be incurred based on historical market movements of interest rates or exchange rates, etc., over a specific period in the past (or observation period) within a certain period of time (or holding period) under a certain probability (or confidence interval), that is derived statistically by employing the theory of possibility distribution.

This measurement assumes actual market trends and the theory of probability distribution. Based on the possibility that future market trends could deviate from these assumptions, a back-test is performed to cross-check the model-measured interest rate VaR with actual profits or losses, in order to confirm the effectiveness of market risk measurements using VaR. In addition, a stress test, which goes beyond the probability distribution of historical market movements is conducted in order to capture risks from multifaceted perspectives.

The following points should generally be noted for VaR model measurement.

- VaR will differ depending on the confidence interval, holding period or observation period.
- VaR indicates the maximum amount of unrealized profits or losses at the time of measurement. However, calculated VaR may not always be realized in the future with a certain probability because the assumptions, such as market movements, could vary during the holding period.
- VaR indicates the maximum value based on specific assumption. As such, it is imperative to keep in mind that VaR may underestimate the potential losses when utilizing VaR as a risk management measure.

③ Liquidity risk management related to fund procurement

Long-term and stable funds such as fiscal loan funds, government-backed bonds, and FILP agency bonds are used to finance these operations and deposits are not accepted.

Cash flows are assessed and proper measures including establishing overdraft facility accounts with multiple private sector financial institutions are taken to maintain daily cash flows for proper risk management.

④ Derivative transactions

A protocol of internal checks with separate divisions executing transactions, assessing the effectiveness of hedges, and conducting office management has been established for derivative transactions, and these transactions are conducted according to derivatives-related regulations.

(iv) Supplementary explanation concerning fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments includes amounts based on market value and amounts that have been reasonably estimated when no market value is available. Set valuation inputs are used for the calculation of this amount, and if different valuation inputs are used the resulting amount could vary.

(b) Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying amount in the balance sheets as of March 31, 2013 and March 31, 2014 and the related fair value, and difference is as follows. Note that unlisted securities whose fair value is extremely difficult to be determined are not included in the following chart (refer to Note 2).

(Note 1) Valuation methodologies used for estimating fair values for financial instruments

Assets

(1) Cash and due from banks

For Due from banks that do not mature or have a maturity under 3 months, the carrying amounts are used as fair value because the carrying amount approximates the fair value.

(2) Receivables under resale agreements

For securities acquired under resale agreements, the carrying amounts are used as fair value because the contractual terms are short (within 3 months) and the carrying amount approximates the fair value.

(3) Securities

The fair value of "Available-for-sale securities" is based upon the prices that are indicated from the financial institutions that JBIC transacts with.

(4) Loans and bills discounted

For loans with variable interest rates an amount calculated by the floating rate note method to reflect market interest rates over the short term is used for fair value.

For loans with fixed interest, the total principal and interest is discounted by a risk free rate that incorporates the default ratio and coverage ratio to calculate fair value. However for obligations on bankrupt borrowers, substantially bankrupt borrowers, and potentially bankrupt borrowers a provision for bad debt is calculated based on the expected collectable amount from the collateral or guarantee. Fair value approximates the amount on the balance sheets on the closing date after a deduction has been made for the allowance for loan losses, so this amount is used for fair value.

(5) Cash collateral paid for financial instruments

For cash collateral paid for financial instruments, the carrying amount is used as fair value because the carrying amount approximates the fair value.

Liabilities

(1) Borrowings

Borrowings with variable interest rates reflect short-term market interest rates and the credit conditions of JBIC have not changed significantly since borrowing. Therefore, the carrying amount is used as fair value because it is considered that the carrying amount approximates the fair value. For borrowings with a fixed interest rate, in principle, fair value is calculated by discounting the principal and interest of the borrowings by the risk free rate (the standard Japanese government bond rate) based on the set period of loan.

(2) Bonds payable

Market value is used as fair value of bonds.

(3) Cash collateral received for financial instruments

For cash collateral received for financial instruments, the carrying amount is used as fair value because the carrying amount approximates the fair value.

Derivative transactions

Derivative transactions are discussed under "Derivative transactions."

(Note 2) Financial instruments for which fair values are considered to be extremely difficult to be determined are as follows. They are not included in "Assets, (3) Securities."

(a) Overview of retirement benefit plans

JBIC has a defined benefit pension plan comprising a welfare pension fund plan and a lump-sum severance indemnity plan. Although JBIC's welfare pension is a multi-employer plan, the amount of the pension assets can be reasonably calculated based on the ratio of the projected benefit obligations, and the related notes are included in the notes for the defined benefit pension plan.

Under the welfare pension fund plan (funded type), pension or lump-sum payments are provided based on salary and service period. Under the lump-sum severance indemnity plan (unfunded type), lump-sum payments are provided as retirement benefit based on salary and service period.

Effective April 1, 2013, JBIC has been authorized by the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare to be exempt from the obligations to pay future portions amounts in respect of the part of the employees' pension fund it manages for the government.

21. Segment Information

(a) Segment summary

The Reportable Segments of JBIC are components for which discrete financial information is available and whose operating results are regularly reviewed by CEO and Board of Directors to assess performance.

JBIC conducts its operations by creating relevant accounts for each of the operations set forth in the JBIC Act and other laws and regulations and had defined its Reportable Segments to be JBIC Operations and Financial Operations for Facilitating the Realignment of the United States Forces in Japan. However, as of September 30, 2012, JBIC terminated the Financial Operations for Facilitating the Realignment of the United States Forces in Japan.

Therefore, JBIC has changed to a single reportable segment comprised of loan, guarantee and equity participation operations.

6. Information on Derivative Transactions

(1) Basic Policy for Derivative Transactions

JBIC engages in derivatives transactions exclusively for the purpose of hedging exchange rate and interest rate risks.

(2) Transactions

Derivatives transactions of JBIC include interest rate and currency swaps and forward exchange contracts. The following table gives a summary of these transactions.

(3) Risks Involved in Derivatives Transactions

Derivatives transactions involve the following risks.

Counterparty Credit Risk

The potential loss from the failure of a counterparty to perform its obligations in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract governing transactions due to bankruptcy or its deteriorating business performance.

Market Risk

The potential loss from changes in the market value of financial products due to fluctuations in interest rates or exchange rates in the market.

(4) Measures to Address These Risks

Counterparty Credit Risk

JBIC constantly monitors the market value of a derivative in making transaction with each counterparty, credit risk exposure to it and its creditworthiness. Such information is then used to assess the appropriateness of making transaction with it.

Market Risk

JBIC utilizes derivatives transactions exclusively for the purpose of hedging. Therefore, the market risk on derivatives transactions and the risk on hedged (lending or funding) transactions, in principle, offset each other.

14. Information on the Quality of Assets

Although the Banking Act and Act on Emergency Measures for the Revitalization of the Financial Functions of 1998 (the “Financial Revitalization Act”) do not apply to JBIC, JBIC has made a self-assessment of the quality of its assets since the fiscal year ended March 31, 2001, in accordance with the standards set forth in the Inspection Manual for Deposit-Taking Institutions (last revised in March, 2014) of the Financial Services Agency of Japan. This was aimed at increasing disclosure on its asset quality and improving the internal management of credit risks.

One characteristic of JBIC’s operations is that a considerable portion of its loans is official credit for the governments of developing countries. Thus, when an indebted country is temporarily unable to service debt due to economic difficulties, debt rescheduling will sometimes take place—based on an international agreement among the creditor countries in the Paris Club—in order to ensure sustainable debt service. A debtor country receiving such temporary support for overcoming the liquidity problem will implement economic restructuring programs agreed upon with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to acquire sustainable debt service capacity.

The loans rescheduled under the agreement in the Paris Club have a high probability of repayment, because, unlike loans provided by private financial institutions, their nature as official credit provides an asset-securing mechanism under the above international framework. Nonetheless, to facilitate comparison with private financial institutions, JBIC, in principle, discloses the loans rescheduled in the Paris Club and whose debtor countries are categorized as “Needs Attention” in its self-assessment of asset quality, as loan assets required to be disclosed classifying them either as restructured loans (under the Banking Act) or substandard loans (under the Financial Revitalization Act).

ERNST & YOUNG SHINNIHON LLC audited JBIC’s self-assessment regarding the quality of its assets, including the following risk-monitored loans, loans to be disclosed under the Financial Revitalization Act and reserves for possible loan losses, in accordance with the Practical Guidelines for Evaluation of Internal Control over Valuation of Assets and Audits for Write-Offs and Reserve for Possible Loan Losses of Banks and Similar Institutions (Report No. 4 of the Ad Hoc Committee for Audits of Banks, the Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants (JICPA)).

1. Risk-Monitored Loans

The following table shows the classification of risk-monitored loans based on the self-assessment of asset quality in accordance with the disclosure standard of risk-monitored loans applied to commercial financial institutions (under the Banking Act).

Each category of risk-monitored loans is defined as follows:

1. Bankrupt Loans

Among loans that are placed in non-accrual status (except the portion deducted as allowance for loan losses), when collection of either principal or interest becomes doubtful for the reason that principal or interest is past due for a considerable period of time or for other reasons, those loans for which there is filing of reorganization procedures under the Corporate Reorganization Act rehabilitation procedures under the Civil Rehabilitation Act, bankruptcy procedures under the Bankruptcy Act, special liquidation procedures under the Companies Act or other relevant laws, or there is suspension of transactions in promissory notes issued by the debtors in the clearing house.^(Note 1)

2. Non-accrual Loans

Loans that are placed in non-accrual status except those classified as “Bankrupt Loans” or those whose interest payments are deferred in order to expedite the debtors’ business restructuring or support their business operations.

3. Past Due Loans (3 months or more)

Loans whose principal or interest is past due 3 months or more from the date following the contractually scheduled payment date and not classified as “Bankrupt Loans” or “Non-accrual Loans”.

4. Restructured Loans

Loans whose terms and conditions are modified in favor of the debtors in order to expedite the debtors’ business restructuring or support their business operations by, among others, reducing the stated interest rate, deferring interest payments or write-downs, and that are not classified as “Bankrupt Loans”, “Non-accrual Loans” and “Past Due Loans (3 months or more)”.^(Note 2)

(Unit: millions of yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2013	Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2014
Bankrupt Loans	—	—
Non-accrual Loans	96,140	96,366
Past Due Loans (3 months or more)	69,065	75,579
Restructured Loans	79,976	77,386
Total (1)	245,183	249,332
Total Amounts of Loans (2)	10,555,128	12,655,401
(1) / (2) (%)	2.32	1.97

2. Loan Assets to Be Disclosed under the Financial Revitalization Act

The following table shows the classification of loans based on the self-assessment of asset quality in accordance with the disclosure standard of the Financial Revitalization Act.

1. Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets

"Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets" are loans and other credits to debtors who have begun proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act, the Corporate Reorganization Act, the Civil Rehabilitation Act and other similar laws of Japan and have financially failed. In the asset quality self-assessment, these loans are loans to debtors who are legally or substantially bankrupt.

2. Doubtful Assets

"Doubtful Assets" are loans and other credits to debtors whose financial and operational conditions have deteriorated and who have a possibility that payment of principal and / or interest will not be made on a contractual basis. In the asset quality self-assessment, these loans are loans to the debtors who are likely to become bankrupt.

3. Substandard Loans

"Substandard Loans" are loans to debtors who are categorized as "Needs Attention Debtor" in the asset quality self-assessment, and

(i) loans whose principal and / or interest is overdue 3 months or more from the date following the scheduled payment date but which are not categorized as "Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets" and "Doubtful Assets" ("Past Due Loans (3 months or more)").

(ii) restructured loans on which the Bank granted concessions to debtors in financial difficulties through amending terms and conditions of the loans to assist them to recover and eventually be able to pay to creditors, but which are not categorized as "Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets", "Doubtful Assets" or "Overdue Loans (3 months or more)". (Note 2)

4. Normal Assets

"Normal Assets" are loans to debtors with no particular problem in their financial conditions, categorized in the asset quality self-assessment either as "Loans to Normal Debtors" or "Loans to Needs Attention Debtors (excluding substandard loans)", but which are not categorized as "Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets", "Doubtful Assets" and "Substandard Loans".

(Unit: millions of yen)

		Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2013	Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2014
Loans	Bankrupt and Quasi-bankrupt Assets	—	—
	Doubtful Assets	96,140	96,366
	Substandard Loans	149,042	152,965
	Subtotal (1)	245,183	249,332
	Normal Assets	12,744,811	14,865,229
	Total (2)	12,989,995	15,114,562
	(1) / (2) (%)	1.89	1.65

Note 1

According to the Banking Act, which provides the disclosure requirements of "Risk-monitored Loans" adopted by commercial financial institutions in Japan, the loans to overseas public debtors which meet all of the following conditions must be disclosed as "Bankrupt Loans": (1) no payment of principal and its interest 3 years before term-end, (2) no agreement for the extension of the repayment deadlines 3 years before term-end and (3) no concrete plan to conclude an agreement for the extension of the repayment deadline at term-end. In the table shown on the previous page, however, taking into consideration the international cooperation framework on public debt mentioned above, the overseas public debtors who meet the conditions above are classified as "Potentially Bankrupt Debtors" under the asset quality self-assessment criteria and loans to such debtors are classified as "Non-accrual Loans" under the disclosure of "Risk-monitored Loans".

Note 2

In the event that a debtor country encounters temporary repayment difficulties in respect of external public debt (sovereign debt, trade insurance institutions and export credit institutions, etc.) due to the deteriorating balance of payments, meetings of creditor countries (the "Paris Club") will be held to mutually agree on debt relief measures (rescheduling), and implementing of temporary support for overcoming the liquidity problem (balance of payment support under an international cooperative framework). With this temporary liquidity support, debtors carry out IMF-agreed economic restructuring programs and continue to make debt repayments. The principal amount of loans for which JBIC has agreed to provide debt relief pursuant to the Paris Club agreements is ¥215,181 million as of the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014. Loans to debtors classified under the self-assessment as "Needs Attention" (but not "Past Due Loans (3 months or more)") that were rescheduled under the Paris Club as "Restructured loans". The amount of such loans, included in "Restructured loans" in the above table is ¥77,386 million, of which ¥77,386 million represents the original principal.
